

The real rough rider is the man who rides the river with a twisting, squirming log for a saddle, on which he stands, balancing himself to its every motion. If his coolness fails or his nerve gives way, disaster and death reach out for him.

It's the giving way of the "nerve" which proves fatal to so many a man. Perhaps he is simply crossing the street, as he has done ten thousand times. He hears a shout, stops, hesitates, gets "rattled" and is run over. When a man finds that his memory plays him false often, when he starts off to get something and forgets what he went for, when he knows he has locked the front door and yet an irritating uncertainty compels him to get up and verify his knowledge, then that man is in danger at any minute when confronted by a trifling danger. He is unnerved.

"This condition can be perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves, and purifies the blood. It contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"The reason I delayed writing was because I wanted to wait one year after I had taken the medicine before giving my statement, and now I can send a good, conscientious testimonial," writes Chas. H. Sergeant, Esq., of Plain City, Madison Co., Ohio. "During the summer and fall of 1900, I became all 'run down.' Nerves were out of order and stomach out of order. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. He said I had general debility, and advised Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and, thanks to you for your advice, I used six bottles; and since I stopped taking it, about one year ago, I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have been able to work every day. My appetite is good, I can eat three square meals a day. I do not feel that miserable burning in the stomach after eating, and my blood and nerves are in good shape."

KALA SADI

Waived Examination and Was Bound Over to Court.

Kali Sadi was arraigned in Mayor's Court Wednesday morning on the charge of receiving and disposing of forty-seven dozen pairs of socks which were alleged to have been taken by the Chiddister and Singer boys from the storage room of the Diamond Pants Company on Monday night of last week.

On the advice of his attorney, B. E. Guyton, young Sadi waived examination and was bound over to await the action of the Washington grand jury.

His bond was fixed at five hundred dollars and the same was signed by A. C. Gussess, the fruit dealer, for whom the accused has been working as a clerk.

Immediately following the disposition of the Sadi case, Abraham Hallock was placed under arrest on the charge of receiving the stolen goods.

Hallock is the man to whom the socks were shipped, at Spencer, W. Va., and an effort will be made to connect him with the crime. He was in the court when the warrant was served on him, and being unable to speak English, through the assistance of Mr. Gussess, who acted in the role of interpreter, and who explained the charge to him he plead not guilty. He was placed under a bond of five hundred dollars, while he was signed by Mr. Gussess. His case was set for hearing for nine o'clock Friday, July 19th.

The socks were in court and filed two big boxes.

Condemn Injunctions.

By Associated Press.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 17.—The National Glass Bottle Blowers' convention adopted resolutions condemning "Arbitrary usurpation of power by courts" in "Unwarranted abuse of extraordinary writs of injunctions in disputes between employer and employee which only result in degradation of all that is best in American citizenship."

The resolutions call upon all members to support the anti-injunction bill in Congress.

I've No Old Ideas

Gathered from the garret of my memory and bundled together with a tangled string of thoughtless thoughts.

Up-to-dateness, newness, cleanliness, cheapness and fullness in weight, feature and count are the links in my endless chain of progressive prosperity.

Here you do not catch the last squawk of the American eagle on your silver when paying for a bottle of medicine.

"Your change, please," is the regulation surprise call to our new patrons.

You save more money in a five minutes comfortable stay in my store than in a four hours' stand at a bargain counter rush.

Nothing, absolutely nothing, do I sell but that it has the advantageous backing of your money returned for the asking. Assumed dignity, pride and snobbish bearing, do not greet you here with the cold hand of meanness.

All's wrong that isn't right. All wrongs are right here.

Say, did you get any of that 5 and 10 cent Talcum powder I had in my window for a few days? It's nearly gone. Ten goes don't last long with my short price on it.

Here's only one, yes one only, clean, complete, fair, square, up-to-date, modern and original cut-rate druggist in the city and I'm it. Good bye.

Yours for business.
